

Context of Captive to Love

By Marcus Lander (2007)

This is a poem I wrote during the break up of my first marriage, when I was unable to see my daughter due to the actions of my former wife. It describes the feeling in the heart of a father wrongly separated from his child (unfortunately this is a poem that perhaps many men can relate to as family courts are often quite prejudicial when it comes to the rights of fathers).