

Context of More Precious than Rubies

By Marcus Lander (June 2010)

This poem was written for my second wife, on the occasion of her birthday that followed the birth of our first child. It is based on the Eshet Chayil blessing that is recited by a Jewish man for his wife on the Sabbath and reflects my appreciation for my wife and everything she is and does.

